When You Cannot Sleep

THERE is, of course, a distinctly soothing effect upon the nerves which results when you rub this famous French Baume on the forehead and the back of the neck. Many tell us that they use when they cannot sleep, because this original French product is so much more satisfactory than its many imitations.

BAUME ANALGESIQUE BENGUE

You will, of course, want a tube in the house to relieve the pain of rheumatism, headache, sciatica or gout—but try it also next time you cannot sleep. Order by the full name.

BLOODY TALES OF RUSSIAN RESSAULTS REIGN OF ERROR

Arrested People Disappear By Scores—Charge 30,000 Rubles to Spare Life—Bolsheviks Now Powerless.

ARCHANGEL, Jan. 24. (Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Tales of horrors within the territory controlled by the Bolshevik government are brought here almost daily by some adventurous Russian, often a young officer who has made his way through the Bolshevik lines. These stories are published in the Archangel newspapers under the headline "The Russian Nightmares."

Two members of the Archangel city duma who recently returned from Moscow where they had been taken under arrest, quoted Nikolai Lenin, the Bolshevik premier, as saying: "Our days are numbered. We know that, but, in leaving the power, we wish to shut the doors in a way to make Europe shudder."

One of the Archangel papers says that the record of the "central allied Russian investigation commission is one of tortures and horrors. Arrested people," it adds, "disappear by groups. Agents of the German general staff are working in the commission. People are shot in the building of the commission itself and in groups of 20 to 30 at a time."

Those who come in order to inquire about arrested relatives are themselves arrested and disappear. "Only those who can afford to pay a large sum of money are liberated. For 20,000 or 30,000 rubles one can save his life. Trotsky, formerly foreign minister, has lost all sympathies among the working men, but Lenin still has great success in some places."

One Bolshevik member of the central Soviet, Comrade Zinovieff, is quoted as saying in a speech: "If you come to Archangel you will see the horrors of having the coast of Smolny institute, including the ships on the Neva and the harbor, being requisitioned in Petrograd. The bourgeois for coats will not exactly fit the red guards, but they will justly bear this inconvenience. On the other hand we have already distributed among the red guards 600 standard overcoats belonging to the Romanoffs. The bourgeois must disappear in a second."

Another speaker at the Soviet government, Tukhachev, is quoted as saying that Germany and Austria no longer were dangerous to Bolshevikism, but that the main danger now lay with England and America. "We must support the revolution in the central empire and we have decided to sacrifice our blood and our bread to the German proletariat."

Other refugees here report that the Bolsheviks are confident that their loss of maintaining power are very weak and that their only hope is a world-wide revolution.

Promise of Allies To Feed Hungry Hot Food Is Fulfilled

LONDON, Jan. 24.—A story of propaganda that proved a boomerang has reached London from France. In the closing stages of the war when the Germans were surrendering in large numbers, a British intelligence officer was greeted by a group of prisoners with cries of "Hot meal! Hot meal!"

The officer showed surprise, but the Germans continued to shout "Hot meal!" and rub their stomachs.

"Nothing doing in hot meals," the officer replied.

Thereupon the Germans pulled out leaflets carefully hidden away in their clothes and cried: "Fished for hot meal—ticket!"

The leaflets, apparently distributed from the air, informed that if it came in and surrendered he would get a hot meal.

In brief military language the British officer told the Germans that he knew nothing of the origin of the leaflets and that there must be a mistake, but the Germans came back with:

"Englishmen always keep their word. Hot meal. Coupon for hot meal."

According to the story, nothing remained for that British officer but to set to work at once and prepare hot food for the hungry prisoners streaming in, thereby considerably slowing up the advance at that point of the line.

SOLDIERS PREFERRED ON CITY PAY ROLL

Soldiers and sailors who have seen service in France will be given the preference of jobs on the city and police department, even though they may not make as high examination marks as civilians, according to James Bates, secretary of the city civil service commission.

The commission met Thursday and went over 23 applications, all being for positions in the city department except five, who are ambitious to become policemen. Several soldier boys are seeking jobs as firemen.

Physical examinations will be held next Tuesday between the hours of 10 a. m. and noon and between 2 and 4 p. m. The examinations will be thorough and in keeping with the law, although it will be necessary for a man to be a superman to pass. Soldiers who have seen service in France will be given jobs on paring 66 points quicker than civilians who get 80 points.

Applicants for these jobs must have been in the city one year to become eligible.

TRANSPORTATION STRIKE DECLARED IN PARIS

PARIS, Jan. 24.—A general transportation strike was declared in Paris this morning. The subway lines, surface cars and automobile business were affected. The strike apparently was well organized and not a wheel had turned up to 1:30 o'clock. Police were stationed at the entrance to every subway station.

The regulation took the matter calmly, even good-naturedly and walked to work. The streets presented an unusually busy appearance for the early hours of the day and the boulevards looked as if a holiday were in progress. In the meantime the taxis received a harvest and exacted exorbitant rates. Thick subway crowds declared it was going to begin running again before noon.
